

A Small Book of Mediterranean Cooking

These recipes come from a kitchen on the coast, where the market decides the menu and the menu changes daily.

Everything here is simple. Few ingredients, treated well.

Tomato and Bread

Four ripe tomatoes, a loaf of yesterday's bread, one clove of garlic, good olive oil, _____ salt.

Rub the bread with garlic. Tear it. Toss with tomatoes, oil, and salt. Wait ten minutes.
Eat.

The quality of the olive oil is the whole recipe.

Lemon and Olive Chicken

Chicken thighs, preserved lemon, green olives, thyme, olive oil.

Brown the chicken. Add everything else. Cover and cook slowly for forty minutes.

Serve with bread to catch the juice.

Fig and Honey

Ripe figs, honey, sheep's milk yogurt, toasted walnuts.

Split the figs. Warm them briefly. Spoon over the yogurt. Add honey and walnuts.

Summer in a bowl.